The Honorable Joan Growe
SECRETARY OF STATE
180 State Office Building
St. Paul, Minnesota 55155

My Dear Ms. Growe:

Your records will reflect that on August 7, 1972, I addressed a letter to your office informing that the United States Department of State, in a note addressed to the Danish Embassy in Washington, D. C., had recognized the writer as Honorary Consul of Denmark at Minneapolis, Minnesota, and that the geographical area served by this consulate included the States of Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota.

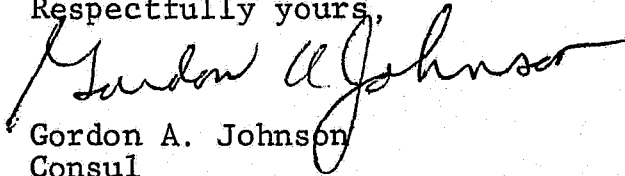

The Danish government has recently updated its official records relating to the status of its Honorary Consuls.

Enclosed is a document in the Danish language, together with a certificate of translation which, it is believed, is self-explanatory.

It is respectfully requested that the enclosed document and translation thereof be placed of record in re-affirming the writer's status as Honorary Consul for Denmark.

It would be greatly appreciated if you would acknowledge receipt of this correspondence and that the enclosures have been filed with your office. Thank you for your courtesies.

Respectfully yours,

Gordon A. Johnson
Consul

Hendes Majestæt Danmarks Dronnings Udenrigsminister

Gør vitterligt: at konsul Gordon Andrew Johnson, med henblik på at fremme de bestående venskabs- og handelsforbindelser mellem Danmark og Amerikas Forenede Stater, den 1. maj 1972, blev udnævnt til honorær dansk konsul i Minneapolis.

Alle og enhver, og navnlig de stedlige embedsmyndigheder anmodes venskabeligt om med tillid og velvilje at yde den hjælp, konsulen måtte have behov for til udførelsen af sin tjeneste, samt at lade konsulen nyde de med stillingen som dansk konsul forbundne rettigheder og privilegier.

København, den 19. oktober 1983
