

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The health of its citizens is a fundamental responsibility of every unit of government; and

WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota has recognized this responsibility in the Community Health Services Act of 1976, which provides for a Partnership in Public Health between state and local agencies; and

WHEREAS: This commitment to shared responsibility for the public health has been accepted and is being acted upon in 87 Minnesota Counties in partnership with the Minnesota Department of Health; and

WHEREAS: State and local officials and public health professionals will join in their Seventh Annual Boards of Health Meeting, September 19-21, 1984, to exchange ideas and improve their abilities to prevent and control disease and injuries, to promote a healthy environment and healthy ways of living, to assure appropriate and community-based alternatives to institutional care, to educate individuals and families in the fundamental skills of parenthood and child development, and in general, to improve the ability of individuals and their communities to become free from avoidable disease, injury, death and disability and to live safe, healthy, and satisfying lives;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 16 through September 22, 1984, to be in Minnesota, in recognition of the outstanding commitment in action of local government officials, local medical consultants, members of state and local advisory committees, and state and local public health professionals in planning for and providing integrated community health services in 87 Minnesota Counties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-four, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
