

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Participation in school activities plays a significant role in the total educational development and wellness of high school students; and
- WHEREAS: Over fifty percent of the students in Minnesota high school participated in one or more extracurricular activity programs; and
- WHEREAS: Participation in athletics, speech, music, debate, theatre and other school activities provides a constructive outlet for the energies and creative talents of young people; and
- WHEREAS: Extracurricular activities extend opportunities for socialization and interaction among high school students; and
- WHEREAS: High school activities directly benefit local communities by channeling the interests of young people in a positive manner; and
- WHEREAS: High school activities contribute toward developing well-rounded individuals and expanding the awareness and capabilities of high school students;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 14 through October 20, 1984, to be in Minnesota.

HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES WEEK

FURTHER, I urge citizens to acknowledge this week appropriately and exhibit support for high school activities programs by attending an event during Minnesota High School Activities Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-four, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
