The wealth of Minnesota's natural resources, the bounty of her acres, the quality and extent of her dairy interests, the greatness of her ever increasing manufactured production, will all be exemplified at the sixty-seventh annual State Fair and the fourth annual Northwest Dairy Exposition, which will be held from September 4 to 11, inclusive.

Our's has for many years been the largest, and deservedly the best attended of all state fairs. This year the management gives assurance that it will be more extensive and complete in its many and varied divisions than ever before. Not only Minnesota, but Northwestern States generally, have joined in assurance that the Dairy Exposition will be one of the most complete exhibits of its kind ever assembled.

Products of field, factory, home and studio will be on display for study and comparison. The Fair will furnish an occasion for residents of every section of the State to get together in annual reunion in greater numbers than at any other time of the year. Fifty-two state departments and institutions will present a joint exhibit of rare educational value. The respective interests of each of the State's 87 Counties will be shown in distinctive exhibits.

Therefore, as Governor of Minnesota, I urge the people of this State to attend the Fair and Dairy Exposition, and by their presence add to the greatness of an institution in which as mutual owners they may take pardonable pride.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed this 3rd. day of September, 1926.

(Great Seal)

Theodore T. Austin
.....
Governor of Minnesota.

Attest:

Wm. H. Johnson
