

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Minnesota has long been a leader in providing for the needs of its elderly and handicapped citizens; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota is recognized nationally for the quality of care provided to the residents of its long term care facilities; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota's system of providing for the needs of the elderly and handicapped are in transition; and

WHEREAS: It is important that legislators and other policy makers in all levels of government learn first hand, through direct hands on experience, about long term care in 1984; and

WHEREAS: Legislators, residents and staff of Minnesota's long term care facilities will all benefit from this experience;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 22 through October 26, 1984, to be in Minnesota.

LEGISLATIVE WORKDAY WEEK

FURTHER, I urge Legislators, Legislative Candidates, policy makers at the County and City levels, and all concerned agency personnel, joint with me in participating in the activities of this special week.
