

Proclamation

WHEREAS: A person's work can provide the satisfactions of achievement and pride in earning a livelihood, and the search for greater fulfillment through work is a lifelong quest for so many Minnesotans; and

WHEREAS: The quality of effectiveness of a person's work performance is enhanced when the individual's abilities, interest and values are in harmony with the nature of the job; and

WHEREAS: The development of a person's abilities into skills for working effectively in the complex occupations of today is a joint responsibility of the individual worker, educators and trainers, and employers; and

WHEREAS: The schools of the State of Minnesota provide marvelous examples of linking education and work through guidance that recognizes career development as a lifelong process that is enhanced through the assistance of trained guidance professionals;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 4 through November 10, 1984, to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-four, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
