

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota has historically been a leader in guaranteeing freedom from discrimination for all its citizens; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Department of Human Rights has, since its inception in 1967, worked to prevent and eliminate unlawful discrimination through education and enforcement of the Human Rights Act; and

WHEREAS: December 10 has been declared world-wide as International Human Rights Day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, December 5, 1984, to be in Minnesota.

Human Rights Day

FURTHER, I encourage all citizens of our state to work to preserve and enhance human rights for all Minnesotans.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-four, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
