

Proclamation

WHEREAS: We believe that all people throughout the world have a right to eat; and

WHEREAS: To eat as a matter of right, people must command the resources necessary to feed themselves now and into the future; and

WHEREAS: This may mean for some access to sufficient land, water and tools, and for others employment at an adequate wage, as well as caring for those who cannot work; and

WHEREAS: The right to eat implies that right to organize, the right to political action and, where necessary, to resist those who would impose hunger for power or profit;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, October 16, 1985, to be in Minnesota.

World Food Day

FURTHER, I urge that the people of Minnesota join together to eliminate hunger and the economic injustices which cause it.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-four, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
