

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Peter V. Ueberroth embodies the entrepreneurial spirit in America, and through his dedication and perseverance has been successful in each of the many arenas in which he has worked; and

WHEREAS: This perseverance, and the delight he has taken in becoming involved in the most difficult of challenges, made him the perfect choice to head the Los Angeles Olympic Games, which for the first time in history ended with a revenue surplus; and

WHEREAS: Through the Games, he built an international spirit shared by the athletes, the volunteers, and half the world's population, which saw the Games on television; and

WHEREAS: Peter Ueberroth's leadership and inspirational qualities led to his selection as baseball commissioner, where his managerial skills will be of great benefit; and

WHEREAS: Whatever the job, whatever the challenge, he has never forgotten his strong sense of family and traditional values, and strives to instill these values in everyone with whom he works; and

WHEREAS: In recognition of his accomplishments, Peter Ueberroth has been named TIME's "Man of the Year" for 1984;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, January 9, 1985, to be in Minnesota, and commend and congratulate him on his many achievements.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-five, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
