

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Global understanding and cooperation among nations and the people who inhabit those nations continues to grow in importance; and

WHEREAS: The pursuit of knowledge about our co-inhabitants is the one way to significantly better understand our neighbors; and

WHEREAS: The study of a second language and cultures clears a wider path to the mutual understanding and appreciation of our global neighbors; and

WHEREAS: The local communities of Minnesota recognize that linguistic and culture studies are important for all citizens of our state; and

WHEREAS: Schools, civic organizations, business, and government continue to call for necessary training to meet these demands; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota continues to play an important role in international business, tourism, industry, the arts, and international relief; and

WHEREAS: The citizens of Minnesota represent a myriad of cultural and linguistic groups whose diversity contributes to the quality of life in Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 3 through March 9, 1985, to be

Languages and Cultures Week in Minnesota.
