Dear Madam Secretary:

Please be advised that the Government of the Dominican Republic has appointed me Honorary Consul General of the Dominican Republic in Minnesota. I enclose a copy of the letter of December 27, 1984 from the Embassy to His Excellency George P. Shultz, Secretary of State of the United States, informing the United States Government of my appointment (the appointment was confirmed by the United States State Department on January 23, 1985).

I would appreciate your records showing my appointment as Consul General.

With best regards, I remain

Yours very truly,

Ralph S. Parker, II
Consul General of the Dominican Republic in Minneapolis
