

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Florence Kulas has been named Minnesota Educational Office Employee of the Year by the Minnesota Association of Educational Office Personnel; and

WHEREAS: She began her work as Secretary to the Superintendent of Winona Public Schools, and held that position for twenty-six years; and

WHEREAS: For the past two years, Florence has been Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent, where her humor and willingness to help have made her an invaluable member of the District staff; and

WHEREAS: Her involvement in the management of the district - which she has done with flair and expertise - is an indication of her vast experience with, and commitment to, the State's school system; and

WHEREAS: Florence continues to be an advocate for the welfare of office personnel, a difficult but much - needed task;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 4, 1985, to be in Minnesota.

FLORENCE M. KULAS DAY
