All persons desiring to be heard were heard.

After due and careful consideration of all evidence, together with all records, files and proceedings, the Minnesota Municipal Board hereby makes and files the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT.

1. On May 6, 1983, the Municipal Board received a request from the Mayors of the Cities of Deephaven and Greenwood for the Municipal Board to Initiate proceedings to consolidate the two cities on its own motion.

2. On June 8, 1983, the Municipal Board initiated consolidation proceedings for the Cities of Greenwood and Deephaven pursuant to M.S. 414.041.

3. On October 14, 1983, a Consolidation Commission of five members from each city and a Chair who is not a resident of the affected cities but of Hennepin County, were appointed by the Municipal Board, pursuant to M.S. 414.041, Subdivision 2.

4. On September 20, 1984, the Municipal Board received the report of the Consolidation Commission stating it had studied the proposed consolidation, conducted hearings, considered the statutory factors, and based thereon, recommended consolidation of the Cities of Deephaven and Greenwood.

5. Upon receipt of the Consolidation Commission Report, a hearing was scheduled for November 14, 1984. Due, timely and adequate legal notice of the hearing was published, served, and filed.

6. The City of Greenwood had a population of 587 in 1970, 653 in 1980, and its current population is 660. It is projected that in 10 years the City of Greenwood will have a population of 600, and by the year 2000 its population will be 600.

The City of Deephaven had a population of 3,853 in 1970, 3,716 in 1980, and its current population is 3,680. It is projected that in 10 years the City of Deephaven will have a population of 4,200, and by the year 2000 its population will be 4,300.

7. The Cities of Greenwood and Deephaven have similar terrain with rolling hills and generally light soil. Lake Minnetonka is adjacent to both cities. Both communities are in the Minnehaha Creek Watershed District. A portion of Deephaven is in the Riley-Purgatory Creek Watershed District.

8. The boundaries of the municipalities have a small degree of contiguity.

9. The City of Deephaven has approximately 1,520 acres in residential use, approximately 19 acres in commercial use, approximately 75 acres in parks, approximately 22 acres in institutional use, and approximately 17 acres of undeveloped land.

10. The City of Greenwood has approximately 160 acres in residential use, approximately 10 acres in commercial use, approximately 2.5 acres in parks, and approximately 22 acres of undeveloped land.

11. In 1983, the City of Deephaven issued 5 building permits for new buildings and 13 building permits for remodeling.

12. In 1983, the City of Greenwood issued 1 building permit for a new building and 8 building permits for remodeling.

13. The City of Greenwood has 5.1 miles of roads and the City of Deephaven has 27.7 miles of roads. Both cities are served by Trunk Highway 7, an intermediate arterial which is not planned for major improvements before 1990.

14. There are no existing or potential environmental problems.

15. The proposed consolidation is consistent with local and regional comprehensive plans.

16. The City of Deephaven has a zoning ordinance, subdivision regulations, a capital improvements program and budget, fire code, Minnesota Building Code, Minnesota Plumbing Code, a shoreland ordinance, an on-site sewage treatment ordinance, human services program, and a comprehensive plan approved on November 19, 1981.

17. The City of Greenwood has a zoning ordinance, subdivision regulations, budget, fire code, Minnesota Building Code, Minnesota Plumbing Code, a shoreland ordinance, an on-site sewage treatment ordinance, and a comprehensive plan approved on January 7, 1982.

18. The City of Greenwood presently provides its residents with sanitary sewer, fire protection through the City of Excelsior, police protection through a contract with South Lake Minnetonka Public Safety, street improvements and maintenance through the City of Deephaven, administrative services through the City of Deephaven, recreational opportunities through the Minnetonka Community Schools program, health inspection and library services through Hennepin County.

19. The City of Deephaven provides its residents with sanitary sewer, solid waste collection and disposal through a contract with a private carrier, fire protection through the City of Excelsior, police protection, street improvements and maintenance, administrative services, recreational opportunities through the Minnetonka Community Schools program, health inspection and library services through Hennepin County.

20. The consolidation report showed that existing facilities can handle the needs of both communities, including police.

28. There would be no impact on the school district if the cities are consolidated.

29. The Consolidation Commission recommended the consolidated city be a statutory Optional Plan A and that no ward system be established.

30. The cities have a history of cooperation with each other and presently have the following functions common to both cities:

School District	Watershed District
City Administration	Fire Protection
Road Maintenance	Snow Plowing
Building Inspection	Sewer Maintenance
Diseased Tree Inspection	Assessing
City Engineer	Community Services
Lake Minnetonka Conservation District

MEMORANDUM

The Minnesota Municipal Board commends:

the city councils and mayors in taking the initiative to request this consolidation in the interest of economy, eliminating duplication of effort, and strengthening common community goals;

the appointed Consolidation Commission members from each city who freely gave of their time and talents to serve on the Consolidation Commission, attend numerous meetings and hearings, research data, and prepare the Consolidation Report to the Municipal Board;

Julie Weidner, clerk for both cities and other administrative staff who also attended meetings, hearings, and assumed the administrative work for the Consolidation Commission;

Brad Van Nest, Chairman of the Consolidation Commission, who did such an excellent job in chairing the commission, overseeing the report, and testifying before the board.

Without this kind of volunteer support, the consolidation efforts would not have been possible.

Both cities have long cooperated in many areas and this request, which stemmed from both cities, was studied over approximately a six-month period by representation from both cities. The Consolidation Commission was unanimous in their support and recommendation of the consolidation of the City of Deephaven and the City of Greenwood. The consolidation of these cities should increase planned, coordinated, and economic delivery of services to the community.
