

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Renaissance period in Europe was a time of renewed interest in the arts, education and commerce; and

WHEREAS: The resulting knowledge and accomplishments from the Renaissance continues to this day to aid in the development of the human potential; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Renaissance Festival gives people in the 20th century a chance to experience the works of artisans, musicians, actors, equestrians and diverse other artists within this historical context; and

WHEREAS: The Renaissance Festival brings these artists together with many community groups in a joyous celebration that is shared by thousands; and

WHEREAS: This year of 1985 marks the beginning of the 15th year of one of Minnesota's leading attractions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the period of August 17 through September 29, 1985, to be

A Joyous Celebration of Renaissance Renewal

for all Minnesotans.

FURTHER, I encourage all in Minnesota to partake of the unique fun and excitement of the Minnesota Renaissance Festival.
