

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Walter F. Mondale has been a political leader, attorney general and United States Senator from Minnesota for some 30 years; and

WHEREAS: He has been a friend and compatriot of thousands of Minnesotans engaged in politics; and

WHEREAS: He has typified the decency, farsightedness and courage of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party in Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: He has voiced throughout the nation those ideas and values that sprang from his Minnesota heritage, ideas that involve fairness and caring; and

WHEREAS: It is appropriate that the State of Minnesota honor its native sons who, in turn, have brought honor to this state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 11, 1985, to be in Minnesota.
