

Proclamation

WHEREAS: All Minnesotans and all Americans have gained improved living conditions and standards as a result of work conducted in the health care industry; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota's health care industry has developed into a national leader in the implementation of superior medical techniques and technologies; and

WHEREAS: St. John's Eastside Hospital has inspired much of this accomplishment through leadership in developing progressive patient care and participation with preeminent staff all in the state's capital city, St. Paul, since 1911; and

WHEREAS: St. John's Northeast Hospital is opening to carry this extraordinary tradition to the suburban communities of St. Paul;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, July 14, 1985, to be in Minnesota.

ST. JOHN'S HOSPITALS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-five, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
