

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Polish American Congress has declared August to be "Polish American Heritage Month 1985;" and

WHEREAS: This declaration is in recognition of the tremendous contributions Polish citizens and Polish Americans have made to the United States of America since the American Revolution; and

WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota has been blessed with a number of Polish communities renowned for their pride in their Polish heritage, its preservation, and the hard work, sacrifice, and enjoyment of life that has served for a century as an example to all Minnesotans; and

WHEREAS: The Polish American community of the East Side of St. Paul and its institutions, the Church of St. Casimir and the Polish American Club, have made significant contributions to the growth and development of this State for which all Minnesotans are grateful;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, August 25, 1985, to be
