

Proclamation

WHEREAS: In America, the CWA has made democratic unionism a respected feature of our society;
and

WHEREAS: In the workplace, the CWA has defended human dignity, given workers a voice in their destiny, and assured that productivity gains will be shared; and

WHEREAS: Through CWA bargaining, thousands of workers today enjoy decent wages and salaries, good pensions, paid insurance and vacations and protection from inflation; and

WHEREAS: The CWA has defended every American's right to a safe and healthy environment at work and at home, a decent minimum wage, legal equality, protection against unemployment, affordable health care, tax justice, social stability, world peace, opportunity and jobs; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Monday, August 29, 1985, to be

CWA RECOGNITION DAY

in Minnesota.
