

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Minority Education Recruiters and Counselors along with the Minnesota Association of Secondary School Counselors and College Admissions Officers are holding their fourth annual Statewide Minority Education Fair; and

WHEREAS: Our target population includes both minority adults and high school students in the State of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: The purpose of the fair is to increase minority awareness of the many educational opportunities available to them; and

WHEREAS: Representatives from community and liberal arts colleges, universities, technical schools, and the military services will be present from Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota; and

WHEREAS: They will be available all day to provide information and answer questions about the educational programs offered through their schools; financial aid advisors and funding agency counselors will be available as well; and

WHEREAS: We believe that this will be a fine opportunity for our community to get the much needed information regarding education at one time and in one place;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Monday, November 4, 1985, to be
