

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Minnesota is justifiably proud of its role as a significant leader in education in this country; and

WHEREAS: It is a matter of record that the eyes and ears of this nation are often attuned to the progressive, enlightened leadership that our state provides; and

WHEREAS: An important trait of our educational philosophy and focus is our ability to realize the importance and impact of co-curricular activities in our high school experience; and

WHEREAS: Participation in co-curricular activities plays a major role in the balanced education of the people in Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Our educational leaders, school boards, administrators, faculty and parents promote and expect quality in our co-curricular programs; and

WHEREAS: Coaches, advisors, and directors are charged with creating a stimulating learning environment in co-curricular activities, to make them challenging and rewarding;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the fourth week of January to be

SALUTE TO CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES WEEK
