

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Word Processing, data processing, personal computing, telecommunications, and other related office information resources have merged to become office systems and have evolved as a means of responding to the concerns of government and industry over white collar productivity costs, the availability of tools and information to address business requirements, office equipment and space, plus the skyrocketing volume of paperwork; and

WHEREAS: The management of information and the availability of efficient and effective tools to manage information has become a driving force in use of office systems within government and industry; and

WHEREAS: Continued openness to change, as well as participation in programs of professional development, will serve Minnesota's office workers well in the years to come;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the third week of February to be in Minnesota.

OFFICE SYSTEMS WEEK

STATE OF MINNESOTA

James Anderson
Secretary of State

FURTHER, I urge concerned people in government, business and education throughout our state to work together to bring about the effective use of office system tools in our offices.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-six, and of the State the one hundred twenty-seventh.
