

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Youth Health Week in Minnesota is an opportunity for the state's young citizens to become involved in determining their own health by choosing a lifestyle that will benefit them now and in coming years; and

WHEREAS: This week encourages young Minnesotans who are old enough to make decisions about their health, and young enough to enjoy the positive results, to do so; and

WHEREAS: Several agencies including the March of Dimes, the Minneapolis Health Program and the University Adolescent Health Program, have joined together to make Youth Health Week a reality, and have promoted its importance in establishing and maintaining a healthy lifestyle; and

WHEREAS: Youth Health Week will offer a variety of workshops to junior and senior high students, so they may gain "hands-on" experience in making health-related decisions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the last week of January to be in Minnesota.

YOUTH HEALTH WEEK
