

Proclamation

WHEREAS: April is Cancer Control Month throughout the United States by Presidential Proclamation and Congressional Resolution; and

WHEREAS: This annual observation and focus of community attention through the American Cancer Society's Crusade is a critical part of the Cancer Control program to increase knowledge and stimulate individual actions that help insure earlier diagnosis and treatment and in an ever increasing number of situations even prevent cancer; and

WHEREAS: The American Cancer Society's annual fund raising activities have year after year helped to support the medical and scientific programs that are now providing physicians treating cancer patients with technologies that are saving more than 50% of those developing cancer; and

WHEREAS: Scientific optimism about accelerated progress during the next decade poses the challenge for increased funding for intensified research in increasingly promising fields; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of April to be
