

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Americans have enjoyed a tradition of success and achievement; and

WHEREAS: The history of public leaders and other achievers documents the ways libraries have influenced their lives; and

WHEREAS: Libraries can help us all achieve that winning spirit; and

WHEREAS: Our Minnesota libraries are celebrating National Library Week with the theme "Get a Head Start at the Library"; and

WHEREAS: That theme encourages people to make the library a training ground for life, as a primary resource for education, information and recreation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the second week of April to be in Minnesota and urge all citizens to get a head start at the library this week and throughout the year.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK
