

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The practical application of parliamentary procedure is in the best interest of all deliberative assemblies in order to provide systematic, fair and equal treatment of the rights of all citizens; and

WHEREAS: Following parliamentary procedure enables decisions to be made on all levels of government and society through a just and dignified process; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota State Association of Parliamentarians is dedicated to promoting the fundamental principles of recognizing the rights of all members and the conducting of business in an orderly fashion; and

WHEREAS: This organization of members will promote the study of parliamentary law and practice and encourage more citizens to enjoy the protection of their rights and privileges by participation in their annual convention being held in Bloomington;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of April to be in Minnesota.
