

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Planning has improved the appearance, efficiency, and general quality of life in our state, counties, cities, and townships; and

WHEREAS: Numerous individuals have contributed their time and talent to various planning activities within their communities; and

WHEREAS: These individuals include volunteers, planning commission members, elected officials, staff members, zoning administrators, building inspectors, and professional planners, both public and private, serving state, county, city and township government; and

WHEREAS: A planning conference for these individuals, sponsored jointly by the Minnesota Planning Association and the Minnesota Chapter of the American Planning Association, will be held on April 25th and 26th at the Ramada Renaissance Hotel in Minnetonka, Minnesota; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the fourth week of April to be in Minnesota.
