

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Faribault Festivals, Incorporated, a nonprofit corporation, has diligently pursued the recognition of the city of Faribault's heritage through a week-long celebration; and

WHEREAS: A heritage celebration instills community pride and unity by recognizing the quality of life in our city of Faribault, and throughout our great state of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Faribault Heritage Days are designed to commemorate the city's history and community pride, and to recognize the many ethnic groups that comprise our community; and

WHEREAS: Alexander Faribault, founder and early settler of the city of Faribault, recognized the need for community involvement and cooperation in all future development; and

WHEREAS: The city of Faribault was incorporated as a city April 2, 1872, and has been a strong and vital community to southeastern Minnesota for 114 years;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the third week of June to be in Minnesota.

Faribault Heritage Days
