

Proclamation

WHEREAS: George "Red" Maddock has been entertaining Minnesotans and others with his unique style of drumming for at least 60 years; and

WHEREAS: Red Maddock has helped keep alive the spirit of traditional jazz; and

WHEREAS: His performances in local lounges and for the past seven years on Prairie Home Companion have delighted audiences—not only because of his technical skill but also because of his sense of humor; and

WHEREAS: Red Maddock's love of life and love of music have combined to make him one of Minnesota's truly great musicians; and

WHEREAS: Red Maddock's enthusiasm is as infectious as his rhythms;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 17, 1986, to be in Minnesota.
