

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Burgee Amdahl has served Minnesota agriculture during his 25 year career with the Farm Credit System; and

WHEREAS: Burgee Amdahl, as chief executive officer and president of the Seventh Farm Credit District, exhibited a never-ending commitment to Minnesota farmers, cooperatives, agribusiness and rural communities; and

WHEREAS: Burgee Amdahl successfully consolidated and streamlined the Seventh Farm Credit District, resulting in improved productivity and cost-effectiveness for Minnesota farmers and cooperative member-borrowers; and

WHEREAS: Burgee Amdahl was committed to providing Minnesota farmers with a reliable, convenient and competitive source of agricultural credit; and

WHEREAS: Burgee Amdahl strived to promote and strengthen Minnesota agriculture, working in cooperation with legislative and agricultural leaders to help restore income and profitability for Minnesota farmers and their communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, June 27, 1986, to be in Minnesota in recognition of his commitment and outstanding service to Minnesota agriculture.
