

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Future Farmers of America is a vital organization of more than 434,000 young people from all 50 states, training for careers in agriculture; and

WHEREAS: The primary purpose of the FFA is to develop agriculture leadership, cooperation and citizenship among the nation's young people; and

WHEREAS: The FFA continues to be at the forefront of research, education and training in the rapidly changing food and fiber industries; and

WHEREAS: The FFA Alumni Association encourages more than three million former members to continue their investment in the future of agriculture through contributions and in-kind services; and

WHEREAS: A major national celebration entitled "America Salutes the FFA" will take place August 2, 1986, at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, Missouri, to honor the mission and accomplishments of the organization, and the money raised by this event will fund FFA Foundation scholarships and training programs;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the second day of August to be in Minnesota.
