

Proclamation

WHEREAS: North Hennepin Community College has helped the people of nearby communities, nearby states, and foreign countries to realize their potential, to further their ambitions, and to improve their lives; and

WHEREAS: During the past twenty years, more than 55,000 students, including some 642 foreign students from 50 different countries, have been able to participate in the community college experience, with some completing career training, some transferring to a four-year institution, and some taking courses to improve skills or enrich their lives; and

WHEREAS: North Hennepin Community College's anniversary theme -- Celebrating a Generation of Excellence -- is appropriate because it is a symbol of accomplishment, of being part of a society's culture, and of the democratic ideal that opportunity through the open doors of education is available to all; and

WHEREAS: While we mark the twentieth anniversary of the founding of this college and the dedication of a new addition to this campus, we celebrate North Hennepin Community College's success in providing high quality career, professional, and cultural services to the north west quadrant of the metropolitan area;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, September 28, 1986; to be in Minnesota.

THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF NORTH HENNEPIN
COMMUNITY COLLEGE
