

Proclamation

WHEREAS: WLOL radio personalities John Hines and Bob Berglund, and producer Roger Andersen, have provided many hours of music, information, and enlightening comments to Twin Cities radio listeners; and

WHEREAS: Their efforts have extended to doing much more for the Twin Cities than merely playing music; and

WHEREAS: These efforts have included a weeklong broadcast from Hawaii "to bring warmth and sunshine to the Twin Cities," and a broadcast from the top of the Metrodome "to keep the Twins in town," and a broadcast from the top of a billboard for no apparent reason whatever; and

WHEREAS: John Hines, the pride of south Minneapolis, and Bob Berglund, the pride of Warrcoad, are celebrating five years on the air together, and are marking the occasion by the first-ever such radio event from the state Capitol;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the nineteenth day of September to be

HINES AND BERGLUND DAY
