

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The prevention of crime should be the objective of all Minnesotans concerned with safer homes, streets and neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS: Each Minnesotan can cooperate with law enforcement officials to resist crime by locking doors and windows and promoting safe neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS: Crime prevention strategies like Operation Identification, a free burglary reduction program available from local police and sheriff departments, and Neighborhood Watch do work to curtail crime; and

WHEREAS: Effective crime prevention requires each Minnesotan to take the initiative in discouraging persons from committing unlawful acts;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the fourth week of October to be

CRIME PREVENTION WEEK

STATE OF MINNESOTA
