

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Women of Today is an organization of young women who believe in the brotherhood of mankind and that this brotherhood transcends the sovereignty of nations; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Women of Today believe that government should be of laws rather than of men; and

WHEREAS: In their fight for independence, communities in the United States have established a heritage of freedom by patriotic service; and

WHEREAS: The American flag is a symbol of patriotic loyalty and pride in our country; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Women of Today are committed to a patriotic recognition of the discovery of America and the founding freedoms of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS: Women of Today across this state will be showing their concern, loyalty, and support for our country by a vivid and patriotic display of pride in America throughout our communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the second week of October to be
