

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Economic productivity and quality of work ultimately affect the quality of life that citizens can enjoy; and
- WHEREAS: Attaining a greater level of productivity along with improved quality of workmanship requires a strong spirit of cooperation and understanding by those throughout the workforce; and
- WHEREAS: Productivity improvement in the output of goods and services by industry, business and government is best assured by a conscientious planned effort; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota joins the Institute of Industrial Engineers and its Twin City Chapter in encouraging productivity improvement through private and public sectors of the economy and supporting the 1987 theme, "Productivity and Quality - World-Class Combination;"

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim January to be in Minnesota.
