

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The cable television industry in Minnesota will be joining with cable companies across the United States to celebrate National Cable Month throughout April; and

WHEREAS: The cable television industry has developed dramatically over the last thirty years to combine modern satellite and communications technology to bring entertainment and information services to over one-half million homes in Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: The cable television industry today offers its subscribers a wide array of quality programming choices from culturally diverse sources; and

WHEREAS: The cable television industry continues to grow and offer a greater range of community, state, national, and international programming which can enrich us, educate us, and entertain us through the facilities of state of the art technology;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim April 1987 to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twentieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ninety-seven, and of the State the one hundred twenty-eighth.
