

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The political, social, and economic framework provided by the Constitution of the United States guarantees all U.S. citizens many freedoms and provides the basis for our competitive marketplace economy; and

WHEREAS: The goal of the Constitution's framers was to provide a free market in goods and services marked by creativity, invention, and the productivity of American workers; and

WHEREAS: National, state and local governments have had active roles in ensuring the rights of consumers to adequate information about products, to product adherence to reasonable safety standards, and to the freedom to choose from an array of products and services; and

WHEREAS: National Consumers Week 1987 is dedicated to reminding us that our rights as consumers are based in the ideas outlined in the Constitution, and that by exercising these rights we continue to ensure that American-made products will be among the best offered anywhere;

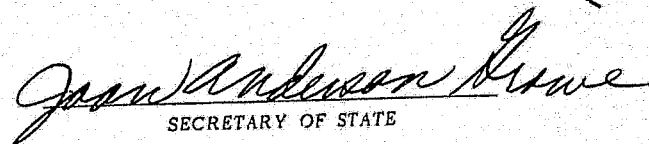

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 19 to be in Minnesota.

NATIONAL CONSUMERS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-seven, and of the State the one hundred twenty-eighth.
