

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Horace Hills Irvine built his English Tudor-style home at 1006 Summit Avenue in 1911 for his wife, Clotilde, and his children; and
- WHEREAS: In 1965, his daughters, Olivia and Clotilde, donated the Irvine home to the State of Minnesota and "Minnesota's House" has been the residence of every Governor since then; and
- WHEREAS: The Governor's Residence Council was established in 1980 to develop master plans for the renovation of the Minnesota State Ceremonial House; and
- WHEREAS: Olivia Irvine Dodge and the members of the Governor's Residence Council since have donated many hours to helping to preserve, maintain and restore the Governor's Residence to the beautiful home it was when the Irvine family lived there; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota wishes to thank Olivia Irvine Dodge, who has served on the Governor's Residence Council and has shared her memories, time, original furnishings and finances to enhance this gift;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, Rudy and Lola Perpich, Governor and First Lady of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the ninth day of April to be

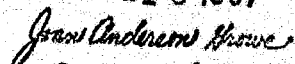

OLIVIA IRVINE DODGE DAY

In the State of Minnesota in honor of her efforts to preserve the home of one of Minnesota's first families for the first families of years to come.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-seven, and of the State the one hundred twenty-eighth.
