

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Paramount Pictures is celebrating its 75th Anniversary by presenting the B.P. Schulberg produced film WINGS at a special CONNECTIONS 87 screening, through the courtesy of the Walker Art Center and the Minnesota Motion Picture and Television Board; and

WHEREAS: WINGS, the first motion picture and the only silent film to win an Academy Award, is celebrating its 90th Anniversary; and

WHEREAS: Budd Schulberg, winner of the Academy Award for "On the Waterfront," and accomplished author of short stories, novels, Broadway musicals and screenplays, has come to Minnesota to make a special CONNECTIONS 87 appearance; and

WHEREAS: Budd Schulberg, as founder of the Watts Writers Workshop in Los Angeles and as founder and chairman of the Frederick Douglass Creative Arts Center in Harlem, continues to share his expertise, to encourage others to excel, and to enrich the art of American literature;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim September 12 to be
