

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Vic Tedesco has served for 21 years--5 of which have been as President--on the St. Paul City Council, improving the quality of life for the citizens of St. Paul and of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Vic Tedesco's love of humor and obvious delight in his fellow Minnesotan has added levity and good will to the meetings and business of the St. Paul City Council, making difficult decisions and complicated issues more enjoyable; and

WHEREAS: Vic Tedesco's antics--including the famous snake incident--are known and discussed throughout the country; and

WHEREAS: Vic Tedesco is retiring from the St. Paul City Council, leaving behind a legacy of community involvement coupled with sound political ideas; and

WHEREAS: Vic Tedesco will be sorely missed by City Council members and the citizens of St. Paul and Minnesota, both because of his genuine concern for his constituency and for the warmth and life he added to the governmental process;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim June 30 to be
