

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The people of the State of Minnesota, as part of the international community of man, recognize that our human family is faced with especially challenging lessons and unparalleled opportunities for growth in this, the latter part of the twentieth century; and

WHEREAS: The people of the State of Minnesota recognize that the time has come to unify our efforts so that we may create a world of harmony and peace, a world transformed by our creative energies and motivated by the spirit of universal loving and brotherhood; and

WHEREAS: The efforts of the people of the State of Minnesota are clearly dedicated to this transformation of our planet and to the acknowledgement that positive growth begins with the enrichment and upliftment of each individual through the cultivation of an ever-growing commitment to personal integrity; and

WHEREAS: The people of Minnesota support one another in strengthening our own integrity and seeking to encourage others in their awareness, recognizing that personal integrity is unique to each of us and is the courage of conviction that allows each member of our human family to discover that perfect alignment with our own truth;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim September 24 to be in Minnesota.

INTEGRITY DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-second day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-seven, and of the State the one hundred twenty-ninth.

Rudy Perpich
GOVERNOR

Joan Anderson Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED

OCT 29 1987

#37730

Joan Anderson Howe
Secretary of State