

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Minnesota's public school program is a model to the nation; and

WHEREAS: Bel Air Elementary School in New Brighton, Minnesota, has served its community with excellence for 20 years; and

WHEREAS: The 3,051 students who began their formal education at Bel Air during the last two decades have had the benefit of its program and staff; and

WHEREAS: The dedication of the 64 staff members of Bel Air School is characterized by those who have served throughout those 20 years: school clerk Shirley Vietz; teacher Jack Jaeger; school nurse Elsie Latawiec; teacher Darlene Rask; and head cook Janet Scholzen; and

WHEREAS: Countless parent volunteers have given selfless hours of service to help establish Bel Air as a leading school;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim November 4 to be in Minnesota.

BEL AIR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DAY
