

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Ed McGlynn has served as a loaned executive from IBM to the Minnesota Department of Trade and Economic Development for the past year; and

WHEREAS: Ed McGlynn provided leadership and support to the Council on Productivity and Quality in its initial phase of development; and

WHEREAS: Ed McGlynn assisted the Department's business promotion staff in seeking technology-related business opportunities for Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Ed McGlynn's persistence and follow through with the Unisys project in Jackson, Minnesota, has underscored the importance of targeted marketing in economic development; and

WHEREAS: Ed McGlynn continually provided Department staff with the benefit of his private sector experience and wisdom during his stay with the department; and

WHEREAS: Ed McGlynn is now retiring from IBM and pursuing new interests and opportunities; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim February 26, 1988 to be in Minnesota.

FURTHER, I urge all citizens to follow Ed McGlynn's example of public service and commend IBM for their leadership and generosity in making Ed McGlynn's services available to the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-first day of February in the year our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight, and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
