

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Minnesota High School Page Program provides an excellent way for high school students in the state to learn how our state government runs, and to take part in the legislative process; and

WHEREAS: The students involved in the High School Page Program receive invaluable experience, which will be beneficial to them in college classes and activities, in forming career interests and choices and in becoming knowledgeable on state current affairs; and

WHEREAS: The High School Pages are an asset to the legislative process during the Minnesota State Legislative sessions, as they are efficient and useful to the legislators and their staff; and

WHEREAS: The High School Pages are always ready and willing to help in any way they can, and are excited and anxious to learn as much as possible about the Minnesota legislature, during their time at the State Capitol;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, March 8, 1988 to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight, and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
