

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The increasing numbers of older Minnesotans make significant contributions to all segments of our society; and

WHEREAS: No single group has done more to build the State of Minnesota than its 700,000+ older citizens who are resources of continuing involvement, accomplishment, wisdom and experience; and

WHEREAS: Older Minnesotans continue to play an important role in all aspects of community life; and

WHEREAS: Older Minnesotans are the cornerstone of our families, often holding a special place in the hearts and minds of each of us because of their role in helping to shape individual values, which in turn influences our quality of life; and

WHEREAS: It is fitting that recognition be given for the influential and important roles older Minnesotans have made to the benefit of society;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1988 to be in Minnesota and call upon all Minnesotans to strengthen bonds between the young, middle-aged and older generations, so that intergenerational cooperation can better meet the challenges that lie

OLDER AMERICANS MONTH
