

O R D E R

Pursuant to the foregoing verified petition, approved by the Chief Justice, and an investigation made by me under the mandate of G. S. 1923, §210, I find that the disability of the Honorable James H. Quinn exists as set forth in said petition and that the public service is suffering and will continue to suffer by reason of such disability.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That said application be and the same is hereby in all things approved;
2. That the retirement of the Honorable James H. Quinn as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Minnesota is directed;
3. That such retirement shall become effective on December 31, 1927, and shall create a vacancy in his said office for the unexpired portion of the term for which the Justice was elected, and which said vacancy will be filled by appointment as provided by law.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Honorable James H. Quinn shall, under the provisions of G. S. 1923, §211, as amended by C. 337, Laws 1927, be paid by the State of Minnesota for the remainder of his life the sum of Thirty-five Hundred Dollars (which is one-half of the compensation allotted to his office at this time) per year beginning with and including January 1, 1928, to be paid at the time and in the manner provided by law.

Governor of State of Minnesota.

December 16, 1927.

S. B. Wilson,
Chief Justice, Supreme Court,
State of Minnesota.

The foregoing petition is hereby in all things approved.

S. B. Wilson

Chief Justice

Marlborough, 148 Summit Ave., St. Paul, Minn. which is not over one mile from the State Capitol and has not been able to walk to and from the Capitol a single time during the last three years but has been required to have an automobile take him back and forth for many months.

That your petitioner is now in a nervous condition which impairs his ability to perform his judicial duties.

That your petitioner's eyesight, has within the last few months, failed and become impaired so as to incapacitate him from doing the reading that must necessarily be done in the performance of his official duties.

That said ailments are growing worse and your petitioner regretfully states on information and belief that they are permanent and that it is necessary that he be relieved of his judicial duties in order to stay the growth and development of such afflictions.

That because of such disability the public service is suffering and will continue to suffer by reason thereof.

Wherefore your petitioner asks your approval for retirement as of December 31, 1927 under G. S. 1923, §§210 and 211 as amended by C. 337, Laws 1927, upon one-half the compensation now allotted to his office, for the remainder of his life; and asks that a suitable order therefor be made by you as provided by law.

James H. Quinn

TO HIS EXCELLENCY,
THE HONORABLE THEODORE CHRISTIANSON,
GOVERNOR OF MINNESOTA:

The petition of the undersigned respectfully shows:

I.

That from March 19, 1897 to January 1, 1917 he was district judge in the Seventh Judicial District in the State of Minnesota; and that from January 1, 1917 to the date hereof he has been an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court in the State of Minnesota and his present term as such Justice will expire on December 31, 1928. That because of said facts your petitioner has served as a judge of the District Court and as a Justice of the Supreme Court continually for more than twenty-five years.

II.

That your petitioner became seventy years of age on June 23, 1927.

III.

That your petitioner has become incapacitated physically from performing his judicial duties during the remainder of his term of office, and that the nature and extent of such disability consists, in part, in this: an ailment in the legs in the nature of neuritis which causes great and continued pain, sometimes more than other times, making it impossible to concentrate in his usual work and rendering it impossible for him to sit long hours in listening to arguments; and materially interfering with his work in chambers or at his desk.

That your petitioner has been living at the
