

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Luda Kaganovsky, a Sewing Technology Engineer, was lured to St. Paul, Minnesota from her home in Kiev, by a friend who wrote her that Minnesota was heavenly, with its 10,000 lakes (but this friend didn't mention what the winters were like!) and arrived in the United States on February 14, 1979; and

WHEREAS: Luda and her husband Fred have been married for 26 years and are the parents of a daughter and a son; and

WHEREAS: Until recently Luda had been working at a tailor's shop in St. Paul, where her customers came to know her for her outstanding talent as a tailor and clothing designer; and

WHEREAS: Luda does alterations for the Perpich family, and keeps them looking stylish and well-groomed with her abilities as a tailor; and

WHEREAS: Luda was knighted "Royal Tailor" by King Boreas at the 1988 St. Paul Winter Carnival; and

WHEREAS: Luda is opening her own business this month called "Royal Tailor" on Grand Avenue in St. Paul, where she will do all kinds of clothing designing and tailoring; and

WHEREAS: The people of St. Paul are fortunate to have such a talented and experienced tailor in their midst to keep them looking their best;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim September 15, 1988 to be in Minnesota.
