

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Kidney disease affects thousands of Minnesota residents; and

WHEREAS: Developments in kidney care include highly successful transplantation and dialysis services; and

WHEREAS: The state of medical care today offers kidney patients options that enhance rather than limit their lifestyle; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Kidney Institute is hosting the National Transplant Games in the Twin Cities, an Olympic-style event for persons with major organ transplants; and

WHEREAS: All participants in the National Transplant Games will be celebrating the gift of health and vitality available to them because of organ donation and advances in kidney care; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim September 11-18 to be in Minnesota.

NATIONAL TRANSPLANT GAMES WEEK
