

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Marshall, Minnesota area is an important educational area in our state, with the Technical Institutes in Pipestone, Canby and Granite Falls, Southwest State University in Marshall, and Worthington Junior College; and

WHEREAS: The Marshall area's long-standing tradition of cooperation is evident in the strong partnership between industry and education in Marshall, as Southwest State University's Science and Technology Resource Center provides assistance in researching, developing and marketing new products and ideas for agriculture and industry; and

WHEREAS: This entrepreneurial approach and cooperation promotes the use of state-of-the-art technology, encourages the development of new products and markets, and ultimately becomes the key to job creation in the Marshall area; and

WHEREAS: The first electrical cooperative in the country was opened in the City of Vesta in 1917, then called the Vesta Cooperative Light Company, another example of the strong tradition of cooperation in this area of the state; and

WHEREAS: The Marshall area is a center of industry in the State, with a food processing plant, the ethanol processing plant, a glass window manufacturing plant and various electronic firms located there, and the boat manufacturing plant in located in Pipestone; and

WHEREAS: The Marshall area is a vital part of the State of Minnesota, as its people, its educational institutions and its economy all play important roles in keeping Minnesota prosperous;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim

M A R S H A L L , M I N N E S O T A

to be "Capitol for a Day" on Friday, June 3, 1988.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this third day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight, and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
