

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Minnesota is justifiably proud of its role as a leader in education in this country; and

WHEREAS: It is a matter of record that the eyes and ears of this nation are often attuned to the progressive, enlightened leadership that our state provides; and

WHEREAS: An important trait of our educational philosophy and focus is our ability to realize the importance and impact of co-curricular activities in our high school experience; and

WHEREAS: Co-curricular activities contribute toward developing well-rounded individuals and expanding the awareness and capabilities of high school students beyond the academic world; and

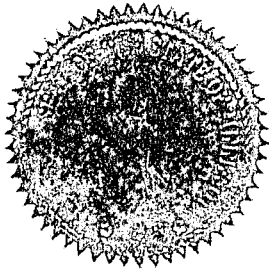

WHEREAS: Educational leaders, school boards, administrators, faculty, parents, and communities promote and expect quality in our co-curricular activity programs; and

WHEREAS: Coaches and activity directors are charged with creating a stimulating learning environment for activity participants and making every activity challenging and rewarding;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of January 30 - February 3, 1989 to be in Minnesota. Further, I urge citizens to acknowledge this week appropriately and show support for high school activities programs by attending an event during this Minnesota Co-Curricular Activities week.

MINNESOTA CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twelfth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
